

Barbara Lagler Özdemir, M.A.

- Co-founder and Member of the executive board, oezpa GmbH, Germany, est. 1994
- Co-founder and member of the executive board, oezpa SWISS GmbH, Switzerland, est. 2016
- Change Management Consultant, Organizational Development Consultant, Senior Coach (DBVC/IOBC), Deutscher Bundesverband Coaching, International Organisation for Business Coaching, certified MBTI coach
- Professor at
- Lectureship at the Fresenius University of Applied Sciences, Business Psychology, Cologne
- International Faculty/Mentor Group Relationskonferenzen (Tavistock-Methode) - Guest Professor in Group Relations Conferences, Indian Institute of Management Ahmedabad/ India (IIMA), Guest Lecturer University of Vilnius, Lithuania.

Ms. Lagler Özdemir is Swiss and co-founder and member of the executive board of oezpa GmbH Germany and oezpa SWISS GmbH in Switzerland. As an organizational consultant she develops organizations in the field of Change Management. As a Senior Coach DBVC (German Federal Coaching Association) and certified member of the IOBC, International Organization for Business Coaching, she is active as a Senior Coach within her Organizational Consulting work.

She trains and develops Leaders in Organization in the Academy Program to the subjects of Change Management and Systemic Business Coaching. She is also a member of the coaching quality conferences of the IOBC and the DBVC.

At the Fresenius University of Applied Sciences in Cologne, she holds a lectureship in "Business Psychology" on the topic of "Organizational Diagnosis & Consulting" in the in-service Bachelor and Master courses. She is an active author of books on coaching and group relations work (Tavistock Institute of Human Relations). She is internationally active as a director and staff member in Group Relations conferences.